Joel Basil Kurian

AI Enthusiast | Content Writer | Public Speaker | Prompt Engineer |
Cohort member at TPF GenAI Rush '23
Ernakulam, Kerala, India

Summary

Calling all humans, bots, and sentient beings! Feast your eyes upon the magnificent spectacle that is Joel Basil Kurian. With his trusty keyboard and a cup of caffeinated enchantment, he embarks on a quest to conquer the realm of Artificial Intelligence, one giggle at a time.

Behold, as he effortlessly leads his team of democratic unicorns, spreading empathy. Armed with his impeccable communication skills, he navigates the treacherous terrain of front-end development, coding in C, R, and Python like a magician who knows all the tricks.

But wait, there's more! As a content writer at TinkerHub MITS, he spins tales so captivating, even the internet pauses to give them a standing ovation.

But that's not all, folks! Joel is also a master of oration and a seasoned Model United Nations extraordinaire. He can debate the pros and cons of AI algorithms while simultaneously saving the world from the perils of poorly designed products.

His prompting prowess does not need better evidence!
